

Booger

Music and Lyrics by The Tadago Brothers

1st Verse

This here's the story of a boy named Booger
Poor little mariner who liked his sugar
Then one day he discovered his dream
Sittin' in the shade and suckin' ice cream
Here come Booger
Here come Booger

2nd Verse

So he bought a little gun and learned to ride
Everybody knew he was on the outside
Got caught up in a big bad barrel
Gave up the ghost and his first love peril
There goes Booger
Now there goes Booger

Chorus

Salt water phantom
Take my hand and show me how you hide
Salt water sponger I see you under
The hollow's like your eyes

3rd Verse

Here comes a board without a boy
Remember now that a stick ain't a toy
And the sea is a body with one big swell
That moans with a scream that a little dude fell
Name was Booger
Name was Booger

Repeat Chorus (twice)

Solo

End

This here's the story of a boy named Booger
Poor little mariner who liked his sugar (here come Booger)
Then one day he discovered his dream
Sittin' in the shade and suckin' ice cream (here come Booger)
Here come Booger
Here come Booger
Salt water phantom take my hand
Salt water sponger I see you under
